Vol. X, No. 13

Carmel Must Provide Rooms with Board

From various parts of California and from the east there are being received daily applications for entry to the classes of university extension and to the arts of the theatre courses, under the auspices of the Theatre of the Golden Bough.

A number of Carmel and Monterey householders have signified their willingness to house these students, but there is a further call for accommodations, a number asking for rooms and board.

Having invited these people here, it is up to the Carmel residents to see that sufficient accommodations are afforded.

The period is from June 9 to August 15, 1924. Those wishing to rent should communicate with the secretary of the Theatre of the Golden Bough.

Church Services for Carmel Boys' Club

All the boys of the Carmel are invited to attend a special service at the Carmel church tomorrow evening at 7:30. This will be followed by a social half hour, during which the Boys' Club will serve refreshments.

The election of officers will take place June 4, when the individual banks will be opened and the amount saved during the past three months reported.

Fishermen, Read It!

The full text of the ordinance passed Tuesday by the county board of Supervisors, placing such rigid restrictions on fishing in this county as to make the sport unprofitable, is printed in this issue.

These stringent regulations are designed to prevent the entrance of the foot and mouth scourge, from which Monterey county at present is fortunately exempt.

Coming Local Events

Tuesday, May 6—Presidential Primary Election.

Monday, May 12—Hygiene Conference, State Board of Health, Arts and Crafts Hall, 9 to 4.

Monday, May 12—An Evening of Art, Members' Night.

Wed'ay, May 21—Exhibit of Prizma moving pictures, by George E. Stone, Arts and Crafts Theatre.

Saturday, May 24—Concert, Madam Isona, Spencer Yates, Constance Bruhl, Arts and Crafts Theatre.

Friday and Saturday, May 30 and 31—"The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," Arts and Crafts Theatre.

Friday and Saturday, June 6 and 7—"The Mother of Gregory" and "The Nursery Maid of Heaven," Theatre of the Golden Bough.

Monday, June 9—Opening of Summer School of the Arts of the Theatre, Theatre of the Golden Bough.

Not a Cross Word in Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Hand have returned from their honeymoon—the third. The first was in 1874; the second was in 1899, when they were twenty-five years married; and the third was last Saturday, when they celebrated their golden anniversary. They had a glorious celebration in San Francisco, where they were married. Here's hoping that the next fifty will be the best.

Fine Program for "Picture" Night

The names and character of the films which George E. Stone, expert photographer, is to show in Arts and Crafts Hall on Wednesday evening, May 21, have been selected and are as follows:

Prizma Natural Color Films

The story of three children who spend a day with the venerable naturalist at his home in the Catskills.

They find him writing in his "barn door study" among the rafters of the threshing floor. He stops the writing of his essay, "Accepting the Universe," to lead them through the orchard and meadow to show them the blue-bird nest, the ants, the butterflies and even the common weeds. Later, after a bit of his quaint philosophy, he bids them good-bye, and we fade out on the magnificent head of the genial man who had come to the "Summit of the Years."

HAGOPIAN, THE RUG MAKER

The story of an Armenian family and their daily life, from the time that they catch a sheep in a mountain pasture, clip the wool, dye it in a copper kettle, spin it on distafs, finally weaving it into a beautiful rug, in which are wrought the symbols of their faith.

MAGIC CLAY

Is the story of the Rockwood Potteries in Cincinatti. The process of the potter is shown from the wheel to the decoration of the "biscuit ware," and final display of the beautiful glazes against batik settings. In the end, a gent in magnificent costume produces pottery by magic from a lump of clay, and the portals close on the Magic City.

THE SUNSHINE GATHERERS

Is the story of the fruit industry of California. It starts with the arrival of Father Serra, and shows the planting of the first fruit trees in the garden of Carmel Mission. From this simple beginning the story leads into the wealth of beauty of the Santa Clara valley in springtime. Then follows the story of the harvest of the California fruits with the sweetness of their "gathered sunshine" into cans from which the housewife removes them to prepare a great variety of beautiful and tempting desserts.

FURTHER INFORMATION

In order to correct the impression that all of Mr. Stone's work is in natural color, he will show a reel of black-and-white motion pictures. This will be either the first reel of his educational film, "The Living World," treating especially the subject of protoplasm, or the first reel of his most recent film, "Malaria and the Mosquito," which has been purchased by the Rockefeller Foundation for the use of the International health board.

The showing will conclude with two short films in which dances are set to music synchronized with the projected picture. The dances will include Bubble Dance and Egyptian Dance.

With the exception of the malaria film, which is not intended for entertainment, all of these films have had most successful New York runs. It has required two months' advance notice to get so many films together for a single date.

GRAY DAYS

By Helen Guerrier

On days when I feel weary
And from crowded paths I stray,
My jaded soul finds restfulness
Out Carmel-way.

I oftimes wonder if you folk,
Ye old-time Carmelites,
Appreciate the beauty of
Your mist-veiled days and nights.

When the sun by clouds is hidden
And the sky frowns down at me,
I like to see the cool fog drift
Like incense from the sea.

I like to stand among the pines
And breathe the sweet salt air
And listen to the seagulls' cry:
'Tis then I banish care.

Yes, troubles seem to melt away
At Carmel-by-the-Sea;
I find there peace and happiness,
And heaven's close to me.

Carpenter Street Closing Case in Court

Wednesday morning of this week saw a large number of Carmel residents in Judge J. A. Bardin's courtroom in Salinas, called there by the trial of the Nelson vs. Carmel-by-the-Sea-Flanders suit, involving the closing of Carpenter street by the city trustees.

Argyll Campbell, loaded down with law books, City Clerk Saides Van Brower, with a bag full of records and official publications from the Pine Cone, Perry Newberry, witness for the plaintiff, and others were placed on the stand.

Trent and Campbell represented the city, H. J. Jorgenson appeared for the Flanders, and Wyckoff and Gardner are the Nelson attorneys.

A decision is not expected for some time.

Broadway Show in Local Playhouse

Such a night! Such a crowd! Such a show!

The Carmel Follies was revealed to an expectant world last night. Seasoned play-goers, first-nighters, critics, near-critics and sundry are quite convinced that Innocent Bystander, in last week's Pine Cone, told the truth.

People who occupied reserved seats last night are buying general admissions for tonight. And if the public clamor is not satisfied, perhaps the show will be put on one more night.

Don't miss it.

Praise for De Neale Morgan's Exhibit

Pedro J. Lemos, director of the Stanford Art Gallery, commenting on M. De Neale Morgan's exhibition, says: "This collection of Miss de Neale Morgan's paintings is the best group of her work that I have seen exhibited. Painted broadly, still faithful in values and color, with a vigor and sparkle that will delight the artist and please the layman. Several of her subjects have come the closest to any artist's work in catching the illuiveness and spirit of the entrancing views around Carmel Bay. Hundreds of scenes are painted about Carmel each year. Most of them might be scenes anywhere else, but few are particularly Carmel. Miss Morgan's are typically Carmel."

Send Them to School Right

The State Department of Physical Education and the Bureau of Child Hygiene of the State Board of Health are sponsoring the hygiene work of making children physically fit for the first grade. The work is state-wide and embraces a formidable campaign for putting California children in good physical condition for school.

Every Carmel child who will enter the school next fall should take advantage of the opportunity to secure a complete physical examination at this time. The conference will be held at Arts and Crafts Hall on Monday, May 12, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Mothers are requested to bring their children. There is no charge.

Those defects in children that are most commonly encountered are: Defective teeth, enlarged tonsils, adenoids, under-nourishment, faulty posture, defective eyes or ears, etc. A child who enters school with a physical handicap is not able to make satisfactory progress. Furthermore, it costs large sums of money to maintain our public schools.

A large part of this public expenditure of money is wasted if children attending the schools are not physically fit to receive the education that is provided for them. A physical examination before entering school is the most important in the school life of the child. It is necessary that every opportunity be provided for the promotion of the health among school children during their entire school life and this procedure is made much easier and more effective if the child is relieved of all physical handicaps before he enters school. The foundation of all education work rests upon the soundness of the human body. It has been said that any system of education which overlooks and neglects the health of the pupil works an injury and an injustice upon the child.

Fine Artists to Appear in Concert

Much interest is manifested in the announcement that on Saturday, May 24, Madam Isona, Constance Bruhl and Spencer Yates are to give a concert at Arts and Crafts Theatre.

Madame Isona is a colorature soprano, blessed with a voice of great power and flexibility, but with a tonal quality warm and pleasing. In Germany she was understudy to Frieda Hempf. She has appeared in various operatic roles and is a singer of stellar magnitude.

Constance Bruhl, pianist, began her musical education early in life. After a period of preliminary training she became a student of the Royal Academy of Music in London, from which institution she graduated. She finished her studies with the great Leachestzky.

Spencer Yates is a young violinist who is coming fast to the front. Wherever he has played his artistry has called forth the highest praise from music critics.

Local Painting Goes to Seattle

Through the Del Monte art gallery a painting entitled "The Noon Hour," by C. S. Price, well known animal painter, who at the present time has his studio in the Old Stevenson House, Monterey, has been purchased by H. C. Henry, capitalist of Seattle, for his permanent collection. Henry has a very beautiful art gallery adjoining his home in Seattle, and has been for many years interested in assembling a rare collection of pictures by notable artists. Although Mr. Henry has so far kept the gallery as his own private collection, he has opened it to the public certain days of each week. He intends shortly giving his collection to the city of Seattle.

First National Bank of Monterey in New Home

The opening of the new quarters of the First National Bank in Monterey last Saturday took on not only the character of a great forward step in peninsula financial circles, but was also in the nature of a social function.

All day and far into the night crowds of depositors, friends and peninsula visitors invaded the stately stone and steel counting room of this pioneer financial institution.

Monterey's entire business district will benefit immeasurably by the erection of this magnificent pile. It gives to the whole city the appearance of progress and financial stability.

It is interesting to note the great advance that this bank has made since its establishment. In June, 1904, the published statement showed total resources of $87,952. On March 31, this year, the resources were $1,351,131, a ten-fold increase in twenty years.

The present officers of the bank are: T. A. Work, president; Silas W. Mack, vice-president; C. A. Metz, secretary and cashier; C. W. Keeley, assistant secretary; J. W. Millington, assistant cashier.

Have you a home? He builds them right. adv

Faculty Personnel of Summer Session

Number 2

In last week's Pine Cone the first of a series of articles concerning the accomplishments of the various members of the joint faculty, University of California and Theatre of the Golden Bough, summer session here, was started with a detailed account of Blanding Sloan's work. This week Maurice Browne is the subject of our article.

He is the pioneer and leader in the Little Theatre movement in the United States; founder and co-director with Ellen Van Volkenburg of the Chicago Little Theatre, 1912-1918; of the Cornish School Department of Drama, 1918-1921, and of the Ellen Van Volkenburg-Maurice Browne Repertory Company, 1918-1922; producing director for Margaret Anglin, New York, 1921.

Browne is author of many well-known plays, volumes of poetry and writings on the theatre. Chief New York productions: The Medea of Euripides; Garrick Theatre, 1920; the Iphigenia of Aulis, with Miss Anglin, Manhattan Opera House, 1921; Moreau's Trial and Death of Joan of Arc, with Miss Anglin, Century Theatre, 1921; Mr. Faust, by Arthur Davidson Ficke, Provincetown Playhouse, 1922; Shaw's Candida and Strindberg's Creditors, both with Miss Van Volkenburg, Greenwich Village Theatre, 1922; Director, with Miss Van Volkenburg, of the San Francisco School of the Theatre, 1923-1924.

DID HE WEAR ROSE-COLORED GLASSES?

Will Hays, moving-picture czar, Harding's Postmaster-General, recently completed a trip about the country. With eyes and ears open, Hays eventually got back to New York and wrote the following:

Great, great is America! And the New Year's resolution for America is to be steadfastly American. Always when I cross the continent and look out on every side at America, there is a conscious pride that swells within me, a pride tempered with reverence, always voiced in a "Thank God for America!" Last week again I came. On every side was America. As I looked about at New York's strength three weeks ago, and at Washington's responsibility the day after, then at home again on New Year's in Main street, Sullivan, Indiana, in the very valley of democracy; then at Chicago's power and then across the plains with endless barns, silos, great piles of yellow corn; then at the brown sands of Arizona; then at the golden glow of California, everywhere houses that are homes, busy people, real Americans with their feet on the ground and their eyes to the stars, everywhere real Americans, everywhere the same look ahead, the same hopes and aspirations, everywhere practicing the faith of the Fathers, all looking upward, upward to the same God. The manhood and womanhood of America is sound.

AGREEABLE MANNERS PAY

Why should we know the laws of etiquette? Why should we know the way to do and say things? Why should we be agreeable? These questions rise in the minds of those eager to cultivate and refine their manners and speech. The answer is: To make one's own life happier—to bring into it a new sunshine, a new joy of living that was not even dreamed of when the mind and spirit were shrouded in the gloom of discourtesy, coarseness and vulgarity.

For how can the boor be happy? With a gloomy face, sour disposition, complaining habits and lack of good taste and culture, he sees only the shadows of life. People are repulsed by him, not attracted. Brilliant men and women, people of refinement and taste, will have nothing to do with him. He lives his own life—his ill-bred, complaining, gloomy, companionless life—an outcast from that better society of which we all long to be a part.

Hostess Committee Wins Commendation

The executive committee of Arts and Crafts met Thursday night at the home of the chairman, Mrs. P. K. Gordon, to sum up the work of the spring and to consider plans for the summer.

The work of the entertainment committee, under the energetic leadership of Dr. Amelia L. Gates, was commended, and a hostess committee was formed. This committee, of which Mrs. J. B. Adams has consented to act as chairman, will plan for the serving of refreshments at summer meetings, as has been so pleasantly done at meetings this spring. The executive committee here wish to thank warmly the hostesses of these past months whose gracious hospitality has added so much to the friendliness of our meetings.

Entertained Last

Mrs. Roberta Arment Leitch joined with Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Bremer in entertaining, on Saturday evening last, at a progressive party for Miss Dorothea Johnston of Berkeley.

It was a delightful evening, and dramatic interpretation. Miss Johnston, a young woman of charm and unusual gifts, gave the program Friday evening at Asilomar, where the Federation of Women's Clubs was in convention. Carmelites will have the opportunity to hear her in the Theatre of the Golden Bough in July. She will also be here for the premiere and will be the guest of the Bremers, who are old friends.

Guests on Saturday evening were: Mrs. Ida Mansfield Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Thomas, Mrs. Margaret Springer, Mrs. Claire Cone, Mrs. Constance Bruhl, Miss Elizabeth White, Judge Ernest Michaelis, Mrs. Laura Lewis, Madam Icons, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hazelton, Spencer Yates, Jack Bremer, Miss Johnston.

David T. Cant, brother of Mrs. J. H. McKee, is here from Los Angeles. He thinks Carmel an ideal spot.

An important meeting of St. Anne's Guild will be held at 8 o'clock next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. A. McCollom, north Casanova street. A full attendance is urged.

Leader Needed by Local Scout Troop

This activity for the benefit of our Carmel boys, inaugurated about the first of the year, is progressing finely. There are now about twenty enrolled. Meetings are held weekly and much enthusiasm is shown.

An assistant scout master is now a great need. Captain W. L. Maxwell, who has given much time to building up of the troop, is likely to be called away soon and it is imperative that someone substitute, at least temporarily. Have a talk with the scout master or one of the committee—Mr. S. Nye, Phil Gordon or George F. Beardeley.

Chevrolet Dealer Doing Well Here

P. J. Denny, who has established the first automobile salesroom in Carmel, on Dolores street, near the post-office, announces that the opening month exceeded expectations.

He has had ten years' experience in the business in Oakland, so is competent to handle it intelligently, for the buyer and the seller. He is endeavoring to make every purchaser a satisfied owner, consequently a booster. Among those in Carmel who have taken delivery from the new salesroom are Miss Mary J. Wilkeson, coupe; H. J. Bremer, touring; Miss Roselyn Morey, touring; Jack Johnston, touring.

Mr. Denny made a host of friends during his connection with John B. Jordan at Pine Inn, and they are all wishing him success.

Edward G. Sullivan of Pasadena, politician, promoter, clubman, former minister to Turkey, was in town this week greeting old friends. On Wednesday evening he entertained a large party at dinner.

Mrs. Emmet J. Donahoe and son of Petaluma are spending this week with Mrs. F. C. Rockwell.

Tomorrow afternoon at four a Sunday school will be organized at All Saints. Parents are invited to bring the children.

Mrs. Josephine Raud-Rogers is a candidate for state senator from the 27th district, not the 17th, as stated in last week's Pine Cone.

Ida Mansfield-Wilson will speak at the International New Thought congress convening at Buffalo July 12. She is Niagara Boycott.

Miss Isabel Smith of Los Angeles will reside here for the next six months, having rented the Taylor cottage. She is a sister of Miss Mary Smith of the Mission Tea House.

Mrs. Lock, sister of Miss Jessie Swift, entertained Tuesday. Her guests were Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. P. A. Prince, Mrs. H. W. Fenner, Mrs. J. G. Hooper, Mrs. R. W. Covington.

Phil Gordon II., who is boy scout fire chief at Bakersfield, in trying to effect the rescue of a beautiful maiden at a recent dance, fell over a fire hose and suffered a sprained arm and ankle.

Seven of the nine directors of the Forest theater met on Tuesday afternoon. Except for an informal discussion of the organization's affairs, the only business transacted was the adoption of Ira Remson's budget for "Mr. Bunt."

Miss Tilly Polak is home from her trip to Europe. There will be released from the custom house this week a large quantity of objets d'art purchased in Holland, France and Italy for her new establishment in the Kuster shopping center.

We'll See Snakes When He Returns

The noted herpetologist, Joseph R. Slevin, brother of L. S. Slevin of this city, has left for Guatemala for the purpose of collecting reptiles. He is doing this in the interest of the California Academy of Sciences.

He is provided with letters to various officials in the Central American republic, which practically gives him carte blanche. These letters, with large gold seals, make such an impression on the officials that he is enabled to obtain his paraphernalia from the custom house immediately instead of the usual six weeks.

On a previous expedition Mr. Slevin was advised that he might kill anything but domestic animals. Presumably there was no objection to putting a peon or two out of business.

He will pursue the reptiles throughout the summer, and will no doubt bring back thousands, as usual.

Local Baseball

Last Sunday morning the Carmel Pals, captained by Glenn Leidig, defeated Pacific Grove grammar school, 16 to 12.

Harold Arnot's team of Oaklanders went up against a picked bunch of Abalone League last Sunday. "My city" Oakland lost, 5 to 12.

Fat LaRue, amateur boxer, played with Arnot's gang. We hope he's a better boxer than a ball player.

Joseph G. Hooper is no longer a hold-out; his salary demands having been met. He was on first Sunday.

The Carmel Abalone League opened its second series of games last Sunday. The winners of this series will be the owners of the Hooper cup.

Result of Abalone League games: Ford's Pirates 10, Fred Godwin's Blues 8; Harrison Godwin's Reds 17, Van Riper's Giants 2.

PINE NEEDLES

Contractor Allen H. Tyler is leaving before long for Aetna Mills, Siskiyou county, where he will do some building.

C. Halsted Yates left for the east a few days ago. He will visit Chicago, and be in and out of New York for several weeks.

Week-end guests of the Boke family were Mr. and Mrs. L. Bachelor from Palo Alto.

Mrs. Daisy F. Bostick recently had as guest Mrs. Flora Geldert. When "Dot" gets tired of the road, she beats it for Carmel.

"Bob" Ritchie was in Los Angeles this week in the interest of the Curtis publication. He does some real "action stuff."

Mrs. C. H. Yates has been selected as judge of the shepherd dogs, dalmatians and several other breeds for the San Jose dog show in June.

The Pals will play the Montezuma school today Saturday at Montezuma and a return game with Pacific Grove in Carmel Woods on Sunday, May 18.

Mrs. William H. Jordan of San Francisco, with her sister, Mrs. Kate Brainard Lamb of Toledo, Ohio, were guests of Mrs. Elizabeth S. Chamberlin this week.

Little Valentina Porter, "teetering" at school, got a hard bump, fell off the board, and broke her right arm. Now the school's basket ball team is without a guard.

Mrs. Josephine Loomis goes to Palo Alto today for a month. During her absence Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Miller of Palo Alto will occupy the Loomis cottage on North Lincoln.

E. R. Hirst, one of the Los Angeles capitalists interested in the proposed new local hotel project, was here this week. He anticipates no difficulty in the matter of sewage disposal.

The Gottfried house down on the south end of Dolores street has been rented for the summer by Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Levinson. Mrs. Levinson is connected with a large paper manufacturing concern.

Eds Rate Talk to Each Other? Asks Mr. M. Batty, R. I.

"I got five cakes of Rat-Snap and three pieces around feed store. Got about half a dozen dead rats a day for two solid weeks. Suddenly they got fewer. Now we haven't any. Who told them about Rat-Snap? Rats dry up and leave no smell. These cakes are, oh, $1.25."

Humane Society Makes Success of Card Party

The bridge and mah jongg party given Friday night of last week at Pine Inn for the benefit of the Carmel branch of the Humane Society was a brilliant affair. At one side of the foyer was a large table where refreshments were served, and back of this a table spread with an array of attractive looking packages all wrapped alike—in colored papers and ribbon—containing the prizes, one for each table.

Punch and cake were served to the tables during the evening, and at 10:30 trays of gifts were passed for each table to make a selection. Great merriment was created by the opening of these, to see what one had drawn. Ivory cigarette holders, boxes of home-made candy incense jars, purses, bridge score cards, boxes of writing paper, ash trays and many articles of value were among the prizes.

The ladies in charge were Mrs. John Jordan, Miss Alice McChesney, Mrs. C. H. Yates, Mrs. M. Brewer, Miss E. T. Gray, Mrs. Brake.

The committee cannot sufficiently thank Mr. Jordan for the loan of the hotel parlors and his and Mrs. Jordan's part in making the affair the success it was. Also to the ladies making and collecting the prizes much credit and thanks are due. Harry Rogers' generosity in returning the tables to their owners the day following the affair is appreciated. The affair financially was a success, and the society will give another party during the summer.

Among those playing the different games during the evening were:

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton P. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Ray DeYoe, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rogers, Mrs. C. Clarke, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Beck, Dr. Amelia L. Gates and Mrs. Margaret Rowley, C. H. Yates, Herman Levinson, Mrs. E. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell, Mrs. Donehue, Mrs. Rockwell Sr., Miss M. H. Anson, Mrs. E. H. Lewis, Mrs. Russ, Mrs. J. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. William Watts, Mrs. A. Abbott, Mrs. E. A. Kluegel, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wood, Mrs. H. E. Hamlin, Mrs. Leitch, Miss Cohen, Mrs. McDonough, Mrs. Rose DeYoe, Miss Kent and Miss Kirkpatrick of the Highlands; Miss M. Wilkinson, Miss Elizabeth White, Miss Canfield, Miss Moore, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Judson, Mr. Barnett Segal, Miss Judson, Mrs. E. Fox, Charles Berkey and Guy Koepf, Miss Rice, Miss Baker and Mrs. Baker; Mrs. J. G. Hooper had a table for her guests, Mrs. R. W. Covington and Mrs. L. E. Hardy.

Mrs. Viola Rice from Salinas had two tables for guests she brought over for the evening.

Mrs. McReavy, Mrs. Hamman, Mrs. Westerman, Mrs. Mohanan and Mr. Freitas from Honolulu.

J. B. Denny, Mrs. V. Dimbley, Mrs. Grant, Mr. Penfield, Mrs. L. Rask, Miss A. Stewart also had a table for guests. Miss Ballard, Mrs. May, Mrs. Thier and several others came in late.

Ralph W. Hicks had a finger amputated last Monday. A heavy weight falling on his hand, crushed the fingers so badly that the operation was necessary.

State Senator Herbert Jones of San Jose spent the last week and here in the interest of Senator Hiram Johnson for president. He is hopeful that the native son will carry Monterey county in next Tuesday's primary.

Miss Lillian Merry and William O. Vandegift, brother of Elsie Lincoln Benedict, are to be married in Los Angeles today. The wedding supper will take place at the Biltmore. The ceremony will be held in the morning and the Canadian Rockies.

The Peter Taylors will have as house guests for some time Mr. and Mrs. John L. Wirt of Washington, D. C. Mr. Wirt has long been connected with the Carnegie Institution, and has sojourned here several times.

Monterey County Humane Society will be held next Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the Dobbins home, 1008 Franklin street, Monterey. Miss Louise Conger, president of the Carmel branch, is expected to be present, her first meeting since her departure for China. All members are requested to attend.

Mrs. Ney Otis was hostess to the Monday Afternoon Club this week at Tapawingo Lodge in north Carmel. Following a delightful luncheon in the garden, the study of trees was taken up, and Mrs. Otis read Kilmer's "The Tree." A potted dwarf cypress, grown by Harry A. Greene, was presented to each guest.

Allen H. Tyler, contractor, has just completed for the Misses Hazel Watrous and Ethel Dennis a three-room bungalow on north Dolores street. It will be occupied by the owners. For the same parties Tyler has started work on a bungalow on Dolores north of Second. Several other dwellings will be erected in this vicinity for rental purposes.

Mrs. Kate Brainard Lamb, an artist of note, who is visiting and sketching here for a short time, was associated with the late Thomas S. Parkhurst in the organization of the Toledo museum. It is interesting to note that she has spent many seasons with Miss L. L. Peabody, at her home in Ogunquit, Maine.

ORDINANCE NO. 357

The Board of Supervisors of Monterey County does ordain as follows:

Section 1. Any person who shall wade in or who shall approach within a radius of 75 feet of the border of any running stream, lake or pond of fresh water within the County of Monterey, without first having had his person and effects disinfected by the county livestock inspector of Monterey County, with a disinfectant characterized to prevent the carrying and spread of the animal disease known as the "hoof and mouth disease," and without having first obtained and having in his possession a certificate signed by the said county livestock inspector of Monterey County, that such disinfection has been had as regards such person as hereinbefore provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. As a pre-requisite to the issuance of such certificate, such livestock inspector shall require the person so applying for same to submit to the disinfection hereinbefore provided with said county livestock inspector an affidavit subscribed and sworn to by said applicant for such certificate, before any person authorized to administer oaths by the law of this State, stating the legal residence of said person so applying for such certificate, his occupation, place of destination, and the place from whence he came. Provided, however, that the provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to persons legally and permanently resident upon any such stream or lake; and provided further that the provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to persons while actually crossing any bridge over any such stream, or while actually fording any such stream.

Section 2. Any certificate issued under the provisions of section 1 of this ordinance must be renewed every twenty-four hours, and any certificate so issued as aforesaid, shall at the expiration of twenty-four hours from the date of its issuance expire and be of no further force or effect.

Section 3. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 4. The adoption of this ordinance and the passage thereof is made imperatively necessary and urgent for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety of all livestock in said County of Monterey by reason of the prevalence of that certain cattle disease known as the "hoof and mouth" disease, and this ordinance is passed by the unanimous vote of said Board of Supervisors, and shall take effect immediately, and before the expiration of fifteen days after the passage thereof it shall be published for one week with the names of the members voting for and against the same in the Salinas Daily Journal, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the said County of Monterey. The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted at a special session of said Board of Supervisors, at which all members of the Board were present and joined in the call for such meeting held for the purpose of adopting this ordinance which was specifically set forth in such call, held on the 28th day of April, 1924.

Ayes: Supervisors Stirling, McFadden, Talbott, Dudley, and Roberts.

Noes: None.

Absent: None.

Miss Louise Wilson of Palo Alto will accompany Mrs. Minna Steel Harper on her forthcoming trip to Europe.

Miss Katherine Kissam Johnson, who has been in New York for some time, is returning here in a week or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Skene are leaving shortly for Europe. It is probable they will be absent for several weeks.

The May session of the city board of trustees takes place next Wednesday night. The regular night, Tuesday, is a legal holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pinkerton are week-end visitors here. They came down for the Pollies and are house guests of the Van Ringers.

Immediately after the Presidential primary on May 6 registration books will be open at the Pine Cone office for those not yet registered, who desire to vote in the August primary and November general elections.

Many Carmelites will miss Arthur Vachell, who sold his home here to the Dougltons of Santa Barbara, he is packing his personal effects, preparing to leave for England. But they say, "They all come back."

The Presidential primary election takes place next Tuesday. In Carmel No. 1, Carmel No. 2 and in Point Lobos precincts 627 citizens are entitled to vote. All registered voters residing outside of the Carmel City limits will vote at Hatton's ranch.

Miss Eleanor Watson of London, England, is visiting with the Watts down at the Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Koster attended the Galli-Curci concert in San Francisco last Sunday.

Mrs. William Chappell and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Hale of Santa Clara, recently spent a week here.

Mrs. Alice Comins left on Tuesday for her home at Cape Neddick, Maine. She will return to Carmel in the fall.

W. F. Perkins, his wife and daughter, Helen, have taken the field cottage for the summer. They are here now.

There will be a lecture at the Mansfield-Wilson cottage at 8:30 tomorrow afternoon. The subject is "Soundless Radio."

Mrs. May Draper of San Jose spent the week-end here as guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Howard Leslie.

Mrs. Vivian Dingley, who went south to attend the Merry-Vanderbilt wedding, is returning to San Francisco Monday to meet her sister, Mrs. Ethel M. Killian, who is coming from Denver for a three weeks' stay at the Highlands.

The Service We Offer

There are unbounded possibilities in the application of electricity and gas to the varied needs of commerce, industry and the home. It is the daily task of science to search out new uses and endeavor to improve old methods.

Through close connection with the agencies for research and study we are enabled to keep in touch with the latest developments in these broad fields. Let us demonstrate how we can serve you in applying them to your home or business.

This consulting service does not obligate you in any way. Just ask for our representative to call.
